Position: Animal Care Intern
Location: San Antonio, TX
Job Type: Unpaid, part-time internship
Schedule: 20-30 hours/week, Flexible Schedule
Website: www.wildlife-rescue.org
Apply to: EGrizzell@wildlife-rescue.org

Description: This internship is unpaid and no housing is provided. This opportunity is a great starting point for individuals who have an educational background or are currently enrolled at a university but lack substantial experience working with wildlife. Wildlife Rescue and Rehabilitation is a non-profit organization that rescues and rehabilitates approximately 11,000 animals every year. If you are interested in pursuing a career in animal care, wildlife rehabilitation, or veterinary medicine this internship is for you.

This internship involves working with a variety of native Texas wildlife. The species worked with are dependent on the time of year. Intern duties include feeding and monitoring the animals being held in the intake center as well as inputting paperwork and cleaning. Other duties may include performing animal rescues and releases and assisting with a variety of projects at the facility.

This opportunity provides interns with basic knowledge of native Texas wildlife including natural history, triage of injuries, and medication administration, as well as the opportunity to gain valuable experience in facility cleanliness and operation standards.

Requirements: This internship involves considerable physical labor; applicants must be able to lift 50 pounds and work in a variety of conditions with variable hours. Desired candidates are mature, reliable, and responsible individuals who can work both independently and as part of a group. They also have the ability to handle physically and emotionally stressful situations and a demanding workload, and commit to the full term of the internship.

Applicants must be 18 years or older, have a valid driver’s license, and have a good driving record. Interns will be subject to a background check. Interns must be willing and able to commit to 20-30 hours per week during the duration of the internship, consistent weekly schedule preferred. The internship dates as well as application deadlines are listed below.
